Summary of Legislation: This bill increases the membership on the Commission on Aging from 16 to 20 members. The bill requires the Commission on Aging to be composed of 16 lay members appointed by the Governor, two individuals appointed by the President Pro Tempore, and two individuals appointed by the Speaker of the House. The bill also specifies the term of office of the members.

Effective Date: July 1, 2001.

Explanation of State Expenditures: This bill adds four members to the Commission on Aging. If members of the General Assembly are appointed to the Commission, they would be entitled to receive the same per diem, mileage and travel allowances paid for service on interim study committees established by the Legislative Council. The expenses of the additional four members are estimated to be approximately $5,800 annually if they are all members of the General Assembly. Legislative per diem will be paid from the Legislative Council's appropriation for legislator and lay member travel.
